

that cannot be achieved using standard materials. This would open up the way to novel applications of MIFs.